

April 12, 2001

Meeting was called to order at 7:00 PM by President John Castle. Meeting was temporarily adjourned for the program.

Sally Landreville introduced speaker for the evening, Shirley Hodges, whose topic was Genealogy and Genetics.

After the presentation and break, the meeting was reconvened by President Castle. Motion was made by Sally Landreville to accept minutes as presented. Joyce Darrow seconded and motion passed.

Treasurer report indicates $2607.51 in checking and $7877.73 in savings for a total of $10,485.24.

There were 27 people in attendance, including guests Diane Fish (joined society), Bob Cahow, Nona Anderson, and Judi Brandon.

Sally Landreville mentioned speaker for May is Morris Thomas whose topic will be Cemetery Properties. The June meeting will be a pot-luck picnic. If the weather is good, picnic will be outside the Vevay Twp. Hall. Event will be held at 7:00 PM. In July, Clarence Hodges will be speaking on Land Records.

Lynne Castle reported for the Membership Secretary. Thanked Margie Griffin and Betty Jean Dean for helping at the Book Fair. Had $76.00 in sales, netting $41.00. Membership is up to 97.

Librarian: Isabelle Wells brought in some more new acquisitions and indicated that helpers are still needed to assist in the resource room at the library. She also indicated we are still taking labels (UPC) from Spartan Brand foods.

Committee Reports: Greg James thanked those who tested the CD on Jewett Funeral Home Records. Mentioned some of the type records on the CD and that he is beginning to work on the CD for Ball-Dunn Funeral Home records. The introductory offer for the Jewett CD is $20.00

Newsletter Editor Barb Smith asked members to submit queries to be published in the coming editions of the newsletter.

Under new business, Lynne Castle noted that Randy Gladstone has a set of PBS video tapes on Genealogy, and he wondered if the ICGS would consider having one of the monthly meetings at the Historical Society building and use one of the tapes for the program. Discussion was held, with consensus being we should consider it for later this fall.

General discussion held on Stockbridge newspaper project. Volunteers needed to help with ironing the old papers in preparation for microfilming.

Meeting was adjourned under motion by Sally Landreville. President Castle noted that next meeting is scheduled for June 14, 2001 at Vevay Twp. Hall.
