

Ingham County Genealogical Society
December 9, 2010

The Ingham County Genealogical Society Annual Christmas Dinner was held on December 9, 2010 at the Vevay Township Hall. The event started at 6 p.m. After a meal catered by Sheri Sleep and her daughter, white elephant gifts were exchanged and food was collected for the local food bank. There was no business meeting, but President Grove Sandrock announced a vacancy exists in the position of Vice President. The next meeting will be on February 10, with Kris Rzepczynski speaking on "The Circle of Life."

Submitted by Beth Hall, Recording Secretary