

Meeting called to order by vicepresident Sam Pardee.

Secretary's report of the February meeting was read and approved.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Eaton Co. Genealogy workshop April 27, the society would like advance registration.

MidMichigan Genealogical Society proposed we share a booth at the book fair at the Lansing Center on March 31.

Eaton Co. program on Mar. 20 is "Women in the Civil War."

A handout from Clinton Co. Historical Society with information on Material in their collection at the Archives.

Next meeting for Ingham Co. Genealogical Society will be a tour of the Court house on Wed. April 10, 96 at 7:30. Members and their guests should meet in front of the Courthouse (west side) at Jefferson street entrance.

Treasurer's report was read and approved with receipts of $25.00 from dues with a total balance of $75.09--March 13, 1996.

Committee Reports

Membership--New member Morris Baily tonight

Publicity -- The Letter Head has been developed by Greg James a sample of paper and envelope was passed around.

Publication--

a packet has been received from Lenawee Co. listing available resources. CeCe is ill and will need help in getting information out for April.

New Business

Speakers -- Ingham Co. Society needs to consider and make a decision on honorariums for speakers to the group.

Joan Harvey notified that Ingham Newspaper obituaries from 1934 to 1962 are now on microfilm. They need to be updated. Nola Olsen is working on this and needs others to help..

Joan Harvey has price lists available for research helps she has in her store

If you are tracing Roots or Ancestors who lived in Western Reserve territories (later the State of Michigan) or if your researching Land Grants for this area that were issued from the states of Mass. or Conn. , these records are still kept in the states they were issued from.

Book Fair at Lansing Center on March 31. Sam will develop a handout to be distributed. John and Lynn Castle volunteered to help at the booth--Other volunteers are needed. Contact Sam if you can help.

Fort Wayne Genealogy research-- it would be helpful to have a preview of what is available and what to expect --from members who have attended.

President Jan Morgan is back from Florida but is ill and confined to the house.

Motion to adjourn made by Lynne Castle, 2nd by Isabell Wells.

Meeting adjourned

Refreshments were served. Members looked over handouts and shared information and resources they had brought with them.

Joyce Zentler - Secretary