Our Librarian, Joyce Darrow informed the society that she will be resigning at the end of this year's term. She has been a great help to many folks that visited our research room and also to many of the society's members. I am sure I speak for all of us in saying "Thank You for a great job."

Our program for this month was "Preparing to do Research in Washington D.C." by guest speaker Cynthia Theusch

Next months meeting will be another roundtable session in which members may find some answers to their evasive problems.
