

Ingham County Genealogical Society
August 14, 2008

The society met at the Vevay Township Hall for a picnic on August 14, 2008, at 6:00 P.M. Although no regular meeting was held, the following announcements were made.

A letter has been received from the Library of Michigan thanking the ICGS for support of library's seminar in July.

The Nominating Committee of Isabelle Wells, John Castle and David Held announced the slate of officers for 2008-09 as follows: President: David Held; Vice President: no nominee yet; Recording Secretary: Beth Hall; Treasurer: Bill Carr; Membership Secretary: Cathy Morse; Librarian: Rod Jewett; Trustees: Pete Phelps and Diane Bishop. The committee also recommended the society have two vice presidents. Nominees are needed.

Marge James was thanked for ten years service as Treasurer. The Treasurer's report shows total assets of $23,532.48.

At the next meeting Shirley Hodges will speak on probate records. Volunteers are needed for the library.
