

Ingham County Genealogical Society
Meeting of June 11, 1998

At 7.30 p.m. Rich Lucas of Library of Michigan, spoke to the group of thirty-one in attendance, on Early Ingham County Land Records, and presented massive materials and maps.

Following the Lucas presentation was the coffee break, and the 50/50 drawing.

President Sam Pardee then called the meeting to order, at 9 p.m..

Four visitors were present:

Bob Kiplinger of Eaton County Genealogical Society
Dorr and Jean Hudson of Clinton County, Meridian Township, and the The Historic Village.
Jim MacLean, Librarian, Lansing Library and Information Center, 401 S.
Capitol, Lansing, MI

The Fort Wayne Genealogy Conference will be in the year 2000. Michigan will have space there. Please make reservations early. Dates and further information will be forthcoming.

Minutes and Treasury Reports were accepted as published. All approved.

Suggestions for the August meeting were requested. Suggestion was made to work on By-Laws in August.

Two people are needed to audit books before the change of officers October 1. Lynne Castle, Jean Crawford & Greg James volunteered for the Nominating Committee.

Barbara Smith reported that the newsletter would be out soon.

Joyce Darrow reported that the computer is up and running with the help of Greg James and John Castle. Also the Gorsline-Runciman Ball-Dunn Chapel Funeral Home in Mason will allow the Society to take one Funeral Record book at a time to be copied and hopefully the books from the Vogt Funeral Home in Dansville in the near future.

Sam Pardee announced a Salt Lake City trip for Genealogy Conference January 19-27, 1999. Anyone may be interested call Bill Atkinson regarding costs and reservations without obligation.

Greg James is updating the Web Page. He also mentioned that everyone should make sure they are using the new web address when accessing the Societies Web Page, as the page has been moved to a different service provider.

Jean Crawford has several pictures of eastern Ingham County, but would like some from western Ingham County as well.

More materials are needed for the research room - i.e. atlas was presented by Rich Lucas showing township platting.

The surname file is updated monthly, and will be available on the computer. Need four-generation family record sheets from members to make sure the file is complete.

Shirley Hodges reported GED Klean eliminates dates and other data on living persons for security purposes.

Mr. Bruce Bevier made motion to close meeting at 9:40 p.m. Motion was seconded, and all approved.

Sincerely,

Sally Landreville
Recording Secretary
