Ingham County Genealogy Society Meeting April 8, 1999

Our meeting was hosted by the Mason Historical Society at the Mason Historical Museum.

Meeting was called to order by Vice President Lynn Brown at 7:40 P.M.

32 members were present.

Jean Crawford mentioned that volunteers are needed for our booth at the Eaton County Genealogy Society's Annual Workshop, held at the Holiday Inn, South, located on Cedar St. in Lansing. If you can help please get in touch with her.

John Castle suggested a tour of the Ingham County Clerks office be set up if enough members are interested. If you were unable to attend the April meeting to sign up and are interested, please get in touch with John.

Joyce Darrow would appreciate more volunteers on Tuesdays or Saturdays in the Research Room at the Mason library. If you can spare the time on either or both days please give Joyce a call. The time is well spent and quite rewarding.

Randy Gladstone presented the Ingham County Genealogy Society and the Mason Historical Society a copy of the Maple Grove Cemetery, Mason, MI. burial Index. We thank you and appreciate this.

Two new members have joined the Society since our March meeting. We would like to extend a hearty welcome to: Sondra L. Higbee, 2460 N. Williamston Rd., Mason, MI. 48895-9529 and John & Gloria Michelson, 6305 Quail St., Haslett, MI., 48840

There will be a Executive Board meeting April 22, 1999 at the Hilliard Building, on Maple St., Mason, MI. All are welcome.

The meeting closed at 8:00 P.M.

After the meeting our society was given the grand tour of the Mason Historical Museum. The Historical Society has done a wonderful job and both the society and the Museum is a great tribute to the town of Mason   and the Community. After the tour, cookies and drinks were served by the Museum members with time for informal chats.

A wonderful friendship was brought together between two community Societies on this night. Thank you Mason Historical Society from the Ingham County Genealogy Society.

Sincerely,
Margie Griffin, Secretary
