A motion to accept the agenda was made by Lynne Castle and seconded by Cliff Eshelby

Our Guest Speaker, Jack Worthington, Barn Historian, highlighted our evening with his slides and knowledge of the Michigan barns history. It is wonderful that there are folks willing to restore and preserve the few great barns still around for our future generations.

The society received a new membership from Carole Mikkelsen, 14 Port Tack Dr., Salem, S.C. 29676. The Ingham County Genealogy Society thanks Carole for joining.

Break for refreshments at 9:15 to 9:30.

Joyce Darrow brought up the fact That the Revised by-laws of the September meeting had not been voted on by the Society members. Therefore this will been done at our next meeting on Thursday, July 8, 1999. There will be no provisions for proxy or absentee voting. It is very important that all members be present if possible. Thank you.

A copy of the proposed revised by - laws may be obtained from John Castle

Jean Crawford, Sally Landreville and Valdeen Warren have accepted to be the nominating committee for our election. If you are interested in running for any office please let them know. All members are encouraged to participate.

Barbara Smith would like to have all news member might wish to place in the next issue of our Newsletter to reach her by June 20th.

President Sam Pardee made a motion to close the meeting at 9:45 P.M. seconded by Tammy Parsons
