

Ingham County Genealogical Society
August 9, 2012

The August 9, 2012, meeting of the Ingham County Genealogical Society was held after a 6:30 p.m. picnic at the Vevay Township Hall.

BUSINESS MEETING: President Grove Sandrock called the meeting to order at 7:40 p.m.

Grove Sandrock said Steve and Joann DePeel were recognized at the Ingham County Fair with a prize for indexing 21, 204 names for the 1940 census, with 97 percent agreement. Shirley Hodges will speak about using maps, gazetteers and directories for genealogy at the next meeting on September 13.

On behalf of the nominating committee, Isabelle Wells reported candidates for officers in 2012-2013. Nominees are: President, Diane Bishop; Vice President, Lori Neuman; Treasurer, William Carr; Recording Secretary, Lisa Feury; Membership Secretary, Cathy Morse; Librarian, Barbara Bridges; Trustees, Jeff Montgomery and Julie Carr. Voting will occur at the September meeting.

Grove Sandrock said the Executive Board of Directors has decided to set up a booth in front of the courthouse at the September 15 Down Home Days event. Members volunteered for one hour shifts.

Sam Pardee reported the genealogy microfilm and microfiche files have been moved from the Library of Michigan to the State Archives and other materials will be moved soon.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:34 p.m.

Isabelle Wells served as the auctioneer for a white elephant auction after the meeting. The sale raised $114.

Submitted by Beth Hall, Substitute Recording Secretary